The small town merchant, the rural business man or the farmer who uses a typewriter has the advantage over the man who does not. The typewriter not only saves time in writing letters and making out bills, but it adds prestige and reputation to the user.

The L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter is especially adapted to use in rural districts because it will stand more wear and does not require an expert operator. By following the instructions we will give you, you will have no trouble learning.

NEWS OF TRENHOLM.

Mr. Fred Abbott is a recent addition to the working force in the woods.

Mrs. Henry McAllister has been confined to the house several days on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Waterman have returned home after ten days' visit to Southern Oregon.

Mr. Jim Williams has taken the contract for hauling staves. At present there are five teams on the road.

An epidemic of the grippe is among us and not even the "good looking folks" are escaping it so far.

Mr. Colen Crouse and family are livig in Trenholm again. Mr. Crouse is working for Western Cooperation Company.

Sunday evening a surprise party was given Mr. Charles Hein, it being his fiftieth birthday. He responded noble to the occasion by passing cigars and fruit. A dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Ren. Music was furnished by Mr. Hyde, Mr. Holden and Mr. Hein.

About fifty people celebrated New Year's Eve by meeting at Mrs. Tatro's. The big sixty foot room was made beautiful by large ropes of cedar and fir boughs draped in every conceivable way and red bells caught here and there. In one corner sat the fortune teller giving encouragement and hope all for the New Year. Mrs. Arthur Fowler made the wheezy old organ take on a new lease of life and old time songs were sung for awhile. Cribbage, five-hundred and pedro were then played until a late hour, when lunch was served by Mrs. Tatro, Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. Billy Tatro. At 12:30 o'clock a string of lanterns along the road was the finish of Trenholm's celebration.
